

Name: _____ Date: _____

CELEBRATE 60!

Have you heard of Guinness World Records? Find a partner and tell him or her what you know. Then listen as the partner tells you what he or she thinks.

People have been setting and breaking Guinness World Records records for 60 years! What records do you think people have set or broken? There are a few ways to find out. You might have a Guinness World Records book in your school library or at home. You can look up records there. Or (with a parent, guardian, or teacher's supervision) you can look up records online at www.guinnessworldrecords.com.

Look through the book or online to find a record you really like. Then describe it below.

Who set or broke the record? _____

When was the record set or broken? _____

Where was the record set or broken? _____

Describe the record: _____

_____

In your opinion, what's exciting about setting and breaking records? Select all of the answers below that apply. Do you have another reason? Write it on the line.

- Being the best at something
- Getting your name in a book
- Impressing your family and friends
- Having fun
- Reaching a goal
- Surprising yourself
- Other: _____

